ILLINOIS' SAFETY CONSTRUCTION LEADERS REPORT

The next issue of the Chicago Construction News will showcase leaders from across Illinois' skilled and diverse safety industry supporting the construction sector. Now more than ever the focus is ensuring proper training and safety education our teams.

For this years report we are looking for you to submit up to 4 nominations for clients, customers, industry partners or your own company. These leaders have demonstrated their commitment to a safe work environment.

Leaders you can nominate include Trainers, Suppliers, Service Professionals and the Contractors who have also introduced new site procedures taking into consideration each person who steps on site.

The Chicago Construction News magazine reaches thousands of readers with our print, enhanced digital edition, weekly e-newsletters and websites. Our readers are key decision makers from across the industry and include contractors, architects, developers and government officials.

We will also include extensive coverage of the Construction Expo & Safety Conference 2022 taking place Mon. & Tues., March 7-8, 2022. The event is hosted by ASA Chicago and the Construction Safety Council.

With a 1/4 page ad we will produce a full page article dedicated to the success your nominee has achieved and how they are contributing to a safer construction sector.

For editorial and advertising deadlines or questions about the report,, please call Chase at (888) 627-8717 ext 212. or chase@chicagoconstructionnews.com
